Judgments of the CJUE regarding CHF mortgage agreements - expert commentary and analysis

The recent high-profile judgments of the Court of Justice of the European Union regarding CHF mortgage agreements may have a significant impact on Polish financial institutions.

That's why our experts Andrzej Pałys, Tomasz Leśko, Jakub Jach and Piotr Szymański have analysed the two rulings and suggest that with the right interpretation of the law and an effective litigation approach, the banking sector will be able to adequately manage potential claims. And these, with the right approach, can be successfully pursued, thus reducing potential losses.

More information: https://www.kochanski.pl/orzeczenia-trybunalu-sprawiedliwosci-unii-europejskiej-c-520-21-i-c-287-22/