Malwina Jagiełło appointed as a member of the Real Estate Committee of the Polish Chamber of Commerce

Malwina Jagiełło, Counsel from the Real Estate Practice at Kochański & Partners, has been appointed as a member of the Real Estate Committee of the Polish Chamber of Commerce.

The goal of the Committee is first and foremost to create legal and economic solutions related to the residential and commercial real estate market and to undertake social initiatives that will have a direct impact on the functioning of this market

The Committee is made up of more than 40 specialists, including lawyers, economists and sector representatives working for some of the largest and most opinion-forming entities in the broader real estate industry in Poland.

The Committee's mandate will run until 2025 and Malwina will be actively involved in the development of the Polish real estate market during this time.
