TRANSACTIONS | We advised Polska Wytwórnia Papierów Wartościowych on the acquisition of a greenfield site from Polfa S.A.

We advised Polska Wytwórnia Papierów Wartościowych on the PLN 143 million acquisition of over 17 hectares of land in Tarchomin, Warsaw, from Polfa Tarchomin S.A.

The land will be used for the construction of a state-of-the-art banknote printing and security paper facility. This is one of the largest transactions on the Polish real estate market in recent years.

The investment will enable the implementation of PWPW S.A.'s long-term strategic business plan and meet the needs arising from the limitations of the company's current headquarters.

It is also a strategic transaction for Poland, as the products manufactured at the new plant will be of key importance to the country.

Our advisory team was led by Weronika Duda. The project was supervised by Paweł Cholewiński and Wojciech Wrochna, with the transaction team also including Malwina Jagiełło, Agata Tworzydło, Dominik Gryś and Paulina Majewska.
