

EN

1. Tomasz Szambelan of Kochański & Partners accredited IP Scan contractor

Tomasz Szambelan, a lawyer at Kochański & Partners, has been included in the exclusive list of accredited IP Scan providers kept by the Polish Patent Office.

IP Scan involves performing an IP pre-diagnostic on a company and is part of the SME Fund programme created to help micro, small and medium-sized companies gain access to protection for their patents, designs, inventions and innovations. And all this with 90% reimbursement of costs.

So it is worth finding out more→ <https://www.kochanski.pl/en/sme-fund-tomasz-szambelan-accredited-ip-scan-provider/>

2. Kochański & Partners - New highs in the IP Stars ranking

Unauthorised use of patents, counterfeiting of brands, piracy or copying of registered designs not only cost companies millions, but also represent a serious business risk potentially even leading to bankruptcy.

When developing innovations and making plans for international expansion, it is therefore critical to seek support in the area of intellectual property protection at the very beginning of this journey.

But how do you choose the right specialists? Preferably by following objective recommendations, such as those from IP STARS (Managing IP), which has once again recognised the Intellectual and Industrial Property Law team at Kochański & Partners.

Piotr Kochanski, Karolina Marciszyn, Krzysztof Zięba and Tomasz Szambelan are once again distinguished among those who provide the most effective support in trademark disputes and prosecution.

The full results of the ranking can be found here <https://www.kochanski.pl/en/new-highs-in-the-ip-stars-ranking/>

3. Kochanski & Partners awarded in EuropaProperty Baltic Real Estate Awards

This year, the jury focused on excellence, innovation and courage in blazing new trails, as well as experience and leadership. And it has recognised those who are changing and redefining their roles as advisors and partners in the business, able to spot hidden potentials and create vibrant spaces, but also to deliver effectively and with an open mind, who go far beyond simple results on paper.

And it is for this and our deep industry knowledge and comprehensive legal services that the Kochanski & Partners Real Estate Team was ranked in the “Law Firm of the Year” category.

The team of Pawel Cholewinski, Partner and Head of the Transactional Practice Group / Real Estate, M&A, has been recognised for its masterfully executed and award-winning projects, including for companies such as PWPW S.A., Savills, Groupe Beneteau and Reckitt.